Blessed are the dead, who died in the Lord. From henceforth, saith the Spirit, they may rest from their labors, for their works follow them.

Pray for the Souls of

MARIE THERESE LALUNE,

born January 20, 1844, at Grand Lez, Belgium, died April 1, 1924, at Gardner, Door Co., Wis., after timely receiving the last Sacraments;

wife of

JACQUES NEUVILLE,

born at Liernu, Belgium, May 15, 1840, died at Gardner, Wis., after receiving the last Sacraments, March 5, 1912.

By her faith in God, her devotedness to her family, her meekness toward all, she was a model Christian wife and mother; therefore she will have the eternal reward with God in the glory of Heaven.

Children I have left you; I have said farewell to this world where I have been only a short time. But should I not be admitted to see God, help me then with your prayers and forget me not, for I have loved you so tenderly. And you, my dear children, love each other all the days of your life and the God of peace will be with you.

Sweet Heart of Jesus and Mary, be my refuge. (300 days ind.)
